

FREE Family Drop-In Art Workshops

Drawing with colour: Discovering the creation of colour from our natural environment

Saturday 25th and Sunday 26th October 2014, 12pm to 4pm

Radcliffe Observatory Quarter, University of Oxford, OX2 6GG

Have a go at making your own natural paint colours drawing & printing tree images

Paint making demonstrations throughout the day
with artist Nabil Ali

The planets...create your own mini planet
inspired by alchemy and the Radcliffe Observatory

Simply drop-in and take part!

All materials provided

Refreshments available

Suitable for all ages from 6yrs+ to 60yrs+

(family friendly for younger participants with adult supervision)

The free workshops are part of the ROQ Public Art Programme and introduce the work of Simon Periton, selected site-wide artist.
Periton's 'Alchemical Tree' sculpture will go on site in late 2015.

Supported by the Pye Charitable Settlement.
Sponsorship support from:

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

FREE Family Drop-In Art Workshops

25th & 26th October 2014 from 12pm to 4pm

Bookable sessions at 2pm each day with artist Vicky Vergou.
Create a vast tree landscape drawing on the windows and tables of the Mathematical Institute Common Room!

Book on the day or email: poppy@modusoperandi-art.com

The workshops take place at the Mathematical Institute (highlighted purple) in the Radcliffe Observatory Quarter.
Entrances via Woodstock Road (red) and Walton Street (pink).
Volunteers will be on hand to direct you!

Organised by Modus Operandi Art Consultants

www.modusoperandi-art.com

Supported by the Mathematical Institute, University of Oxford and the Pye Charitable Settlement.

Sponsored by Faber-Castell.

